What do I do if I want to gain access to personal information held by Hanson Property or have a complaint about how my information has been handled?

Information that is stored by Hanson Property about an individual is stored in a reasonable state of security. All information is stored on site at our office, 4 Egyptian Street, Kealy WA 6280 in hard and/or soft electronic copy.

Hanson Property have a staff training and access procedure in place to foster a privacy and security aware culture within our organization.

Pursuant to the APPs, persons have certain rights to obtain access to personal information held by us with respect to that individual. Subject to the relevant exemptions contained in the APPs and subject to an individual providing sufficient proof of his or her identity, Hanson Property will provide access to information that it holds relating to an individual. Hanson Property reserves the right to charge a fee for the provision of this information based on the administrative cost of supplying the information requested. Further details as to these costs and the ability to access information held by us can be obtained by contacting our Privacy Officer.

Hanson Property requests, for the purposes of clarity, that any requests for access to personal information be made in writing addressed to the agency's Privacy Officer.

We will generally provide access to information by providing to the individual concerned copies of relevant documents. Where, for reasons of volume or otherwise, providing copies of documents is not practical, we will make arrangements for the individual concerned to attend at our offices to carry out a physical inspection.

Wherever possible, we will provide copies of documents or access to the information that we hold with respect to an individual within 14 days of the receipt of the relevant request. In the case of more complex requests we will endeavour to provide access to the information within a period of 30 days.

If individuals believe that information held relating to them is incorrect they are entitled to request, by contacting our Privacy Officer, that we correct that information.

Should we believe that we are entitled to refuse a request to access information or to make corrections we will provide written reasons for our decision.

If you are dissatisfied with the manner in which we deal with your personal information or should you wish to make a complaint regarding our compliance with privacy laws, please contact our Privacy Officer in writing. A response to your complaint will be provided within 30 days of receipt of your complaint.

If a satisfactory resolution is not made as a result of the complaint to Hanson Property, the complaint may then be taken to a recognised external dispute resolution (EDR) scheme (if applicable) and finally to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC).

Further information

Should any person wish to obtain further information with respect to the type of personal information we hold, the purposes for which we use that information and/or the way in which we manage that information, please contact our Privacy Officer via the contact details set out above.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

This document sets our current privacy policy. This policy will be reviewed from time to time and will be maintained in an up-to-date form. Any changes to this policy will be posted on the relevant section of our website.
